

The Confidence of The Righteous and The Accomplishments of the Wicked

Psalms 118:8 “It is better to trust in the Lord than to put confidence in men”

Everything you have received from the Lord is yours to be given away before the face of all creation for the purpose of revealing His love (i.e. Labor Of Vast Enrichment). This Love is the merciful act He constantly does for every cell, molecule and atom in all the physical creation and for every thought and emotion He helps to be formed and expressed by the hearts and minds of His Souls and Spirits.

The thoughts and dreams of the righteous are far more pleasing and more real to God than all the wicked has managed to erect and build upon the earth.

The wicked plans, builds, constructs, decorate, and commemorates, however, it is vanity that goes up in smoke before the face of The Lord of all eternity.

The wicked inherit their dreams, they are allowed to manifest their desires upon the earth but this is all done for evidence to be used against them in the Day of Judgment.

They'll stand speechless and in silence before the Lord of all The Earth when they behold Him and see that creation was made solely for the purpose of promoting The Lord's way of thinking in our minds and the Lord's way of feeling in our hearts. Why would you think there's a judgment coming if it's not to do away with the boast and pride of the wicked to establish forevermore the righteousness of The Lord for which creation was first made to begin with?

Rejoice ye righteous, for your eyes, He has opened, and you've been given understanding to look upon the beloved of your Soul. One glimpse of our Maker is far better and far more pleasant to our souls than a thousand visions and dreams the wicked are allowed to fulfill upon the earth.

When all is said and done, this fact remains: The wicked are like the troubled sea, whose waters cast out mire and dirt (all they can do with their fountain of inspiration is build mud, steel and dirt), but even when they get to do all of this, there is no peace saith my God unto the wicked.

For all flesh is as grass, and the glory of man (i.e. all he gets to build and accomplish upon earth) is as the flower of grass, The grass withered and the flower falleth away, but the Word of The Lord and those doing the will of the Lord by keeping His Word abide forever.

When all the elements will burn with fervent heat and all the wicked together with their labors, accomplishments and toils are swept away, the righteous shall remain and He shall have them shine as His Stars forever and ever. For while they lived on the earth they did not hold unto anything nor trusted or put their confidence on anything, but were as the stars up in space who depend only on the Word that made them to be held in their place.
